OUR FAVORITE MONTHLY AMAZON PURCHASES

GLYCOLIC FACE WASH

I like the way this smells and feels as it gently scrubs off all the dirt and make-up. It's an affordable face wash under $22 that's become my go-to at night.

HIGH-WAISTED YOGA PANTS

OMG, I love my new ¾ camo leggings that are a fraction of the designer price, and just as soft. They feel like butter and have the side pockets I love.

buttery soft

COTTON PRINTED RUG

My boys are eating lunch & snack time outside more at school during the nice weather in order to keep distancing, so I bought these cute (my black and white style!) rugs so they can sit on and enjoy. Solo sitting, but still can chat with their friends on the lawn during lunch. I also plan to pack up our rugs for picnics at the park, sports games, etc. Makes sitting on grass less dirty, and cuter!

FOLDABLE STORAGE BASKET

I don't have enough hands to carry my kids toys up and down the stairs everyday between their bedrooms and the living room. So, I bought them each their own basket in colors that match my house. They can put items in their basket, and carry them up every evening.

MINION PERLER BEADS

Our kids love perler beads. It can entertain them for hours. They also love minions. This is a win-win for under $15. Makes a great gift, plus its hours of activity when the weather turns cold.

great gifts for kids!

SCRATCH AND SKETCH ACTIVITY BOOK

I love to keep this in the car, and in my purse at church. The texture and colors keep my kids attention, and I love to see what they can create.
